BIRTHDAY PARTY

A group of eight little children ranging from one to three years of age were entertained at the home of Roger Loyd, small son of Mr. and Mrs. Tal Loyd who was celebrating his second birthday, Monday afternoon. Most of the time was spent with the little tots getting acquainted. Those present were: Elaine Fair, Dale Huitt, Johnny Dennison, Danny Bolin, Jackie Copeland, Sonja Larsson, Laddie and Roger Loyd. Refreshments of ice cream, cake and pop were served. All the children seemed to enjoy the party very much and to the most of them it was the first real party they had attended.

EASTER EGG HUNT FOR SMALL TOTS

Twenty eight small children between walking age and six years gathered at the J. T. Loyd home Easter morning to investigate the rumor that the Easter Bunny had been seen busily making nests in that vicinity. They were not disappointed and after an hour of search in every nook and corner, under leaves, in tree forks, etc. A large basket of beautifully colored Easter eggs were found and many little hearts were made happy. Many other heart beats besides those of the little tots were quickened too, for several had come to watch and to take care of those who had to be led by the hand in the hunt, in fact it was about as much of a thrill to those, as it was to the youngsters.

The egg hunt was sponsored by Miss Blanche Loyd and prizes given for the most eggs found. Those winning prizes were: First, Corkie Gardner, Second, Doris Copeland, and Third, Roscoe Dick.

Those present were: Ruby Ballance, Donnie Sallee, Billie Sullivan, Roscoe Dick, Corkie Gardner, Billy Gardner, Joan Smith, E. J. Smith, Loyd Lee Matthews, Sonja Larsson, Beverly Sue Copeland, Dale Bockman, Dale Huitt, Dixie Johnson, Robert Lee Butts, Imogene Martin, Doris Copeland, Paul Lowe, Donald Finley, Dale Wolfe, Bobbie Blunkall, Clinton Deakins, Dannie Bolin, Billy Jim McNeil, Junior Mayberry, Jackie Copeland, Roger Loyd and Laddie Loyd.
