

In Loving Memory of a Life Well Lived

May this Celebration of Life serve as a reminder that one person can make a difference, forever touch our hearts and leave the world a better place

Phil/Roger was amazingly remarkable with exceptional talents, capabilities and skills; outstandingly good who always tried to help; and humbly confident who uplifted, encouraged and made one feel anything is possible, doable and attainable. He had a great sense of humor, was a lot of fun and the glass was always half full. He lived life to the fullest with zest, wonder and curiosity. He was a rock, a pillar of strength, a beacon of light, and one could always, always, always count on him. He is dearly missed.

*People will forget what you said, people will forget what you did, but people will never forget how you made them feel.
Maya Angelou*

Thank you so much to all for the contributions that made this Celebration of Life possible. With special gratitude to:

Kelly Loyd (daughter) for family photos, insight and feedback

Phillip A. Loyd (son) for thoughts, context and details

Janine Origer (daughter) for black and white cowboys photo (3 guys on horseback), content and sharing
Stacy Westfall's Horse Championship Run with her dad

Jamal Bannister for Memorial Bronze Leaf on Memory Tree coordination, photos and follow-up

Chris Schulz for black and white hunting trip photo (5 guys [fathers and sons] in front of van)

Joyce Ziegler for Ladiges cattle roundup photos

Lorna Paddock for original book cover, author information and poems with illustrations by her great grandmother, Ethel McLean Johnston

Linda Pishion for poem inside story

Tristan Goldberg for ideas, concepts and technical skills

Sabrina Goldberg for input, edits and review

Emanuela Sandri for layout, content and revisions

Noman Khatri with Amzufia – Quality Solutions for website design

Don't cry because it's over, smile because it happened.

~ Dr. Seuss